

Explore Christian faith and theology with the MA Theology from the University of Cumbria

University of Cumbria
Bring your dreams

In a fast changing world, our MA Theology allows you to explore the role of Christian faith and theology in the 21st century. The course, which is offered on a full and part-time basis at our Lancaster campus, aims to deepen and extend your understanding of the evolving shape of Christian theology and its bearing on the life and work of the Church. The teaching, learning and assessment are designed to ensure that you develop a critical awareness with advanced knowledge and understanding of key issues in theology.

The course, which is delivered in a friendly, supportive environment, has been specially designed for graduates wishing to enhance their existing qualifications, teachers, clergy or others seeking professional development and anyone looking to develop their knowledge and awareness of Christian theology.
